When the writer of this reached the School Building, in Monterey, on the morning of the 15th, he found that quite a goodly number were in attendance upon the examination, and all showed from their bright and smiling countenances and determined looks, that they had come to do their best.

One new feature particularly commented upon was, that the teachers were divided- the gentlemen occupying the upper room under the direct supervision of Mr. Hansel, the new Superintendent, and the ladies occupying the lower room, under the controll of Mr. W. P. Campbell.

An effort was set on foot to organize and perpetuate a Teacher's Association, which, if properly attended to, will do much toward the mutual improvement of the cause

And a good lamp must be simple; when it is not simple it is not good. Simple, Beautiful, Good—these words mean much, but to see "The Rochester" will impress the truth more forcibly. All metal, tough and seamless, and made in three pieces only, it is absolutely safe and unbreakable. Like Aladdin's of old, it is indeed a "wonderful lamp," for its marvelous light is purer and brighter than gas light, softer than electric light and more cheerful than either.

Look for this stamp—THE ROCHESTER. If the lamp dealer has n't the genuine Rochester, and the style you want, send to us for our new illustrated catalogue, and we will send you a lamp safely by express—your choice of over 2,000 varieties from the Largest Lamp Store in the World. he Rochester."
